One-to-One Befriending

A one-to-one befriender is a trained volunteer who will meet with you on a regular basis to offer support and encouragement. They will help you to set your own goals and work towards them as you continue on your personal development journey.

One-to-one befrienders can work with you for up to 18 months, offering you friendship and helping you take positive steps forward in your life. A befriender won't tell you what to do, but they will support you to make decisions for yourself.

One-to-one befriending sessions will take place at times and places that are convenient for you. To find out more about the befriending scheme, speak to any member of staff.
